OF WOMAN'S EQUAL RIGHTS*It Should Be Left for Women to Decide--Militant Leaders of Suffrage Movements are Roundly Scored For Their Antics.NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Theodore Roosevelt discusses "Women's Rights, and the Duties of Both Men and Women," in an editorial in the current issue of the Outlook. He says in part:"Much, indeed, has America owed to the fact that her two greatest men, Washington and Lincoln, though they did not neglect rights, were even more concerned with duties."I believe in woman's rights. I believe even more earnestly in the performance of duty by both men and women; for unless the average man and average woman live lives of duty, not only your democracy, but civilization itself will perish. I heartily believe in equality of rights as between man and woman, but also in full and emphatic recognition of the fact that normally there can not be identity of function. Indeed, there must normally be complete dissimilarity of function between them, and the effort to ignore this patent fact is silly."I believe in women's suffrage wherever the women want it. Where they do not want it, the suffrage should not be forced on them. I think it would be well to let the women themselves, and only the women, vote at some special election as to whether they do or do not wish the vote as a permanent possession. In other words, this is peculiarly a case for the referendum to those most directly affected—that is, the women themselves. I should be entirely content to abide by the decision, either way; for, though I do not think that the damage professed from women voting would come, or has come, where it has been tried; I also think that very much less effect would be produced, one way or the other, than the enthusiasts believe. In other words, I do not regard the movement as anything like as important as either its extreme friends or extreme opponents think. It is so much less important than many other reforms that I have never been able to take a very heated interest in it.Antics of Leaders."If the woman suffrage movement were to be judged only by those advocates of it who discredit themselves and their sex by disorderly antics in public, and who assail the foundations of private and public morality in their endeavor, not to raise the sense of moral duty in man, but to lower the sense of moral duty in woman, I should certainly oppose the movement. But I do not believe these undesirable apostles are in any way to be accepted as exponents of the cause; and I call attention to the fact that they are prominent, not in the region where woman suffrage exists, but in regions where it does not exist."I pin my faith to woman suffragists of the type of the late Julia Ward Howe. Julia Ward Howe was one of the foremost citizens of this republic; she rendered service to the people such as few men in any generation render; and yet she did,first of all, her full duty in the intimate home relations that must ever take precedence of all other relations.In our western states where the suffrage has been given to women, I am unable to see that any great difference has been caused, as compared with neighboring states of similar social and industrial conditions where women have not the suffrage. Yet what slight changes have occurred have been for the better and not the worse.Comparatively Unimportant."I most earnestly desire to emphasize my feeling that the question of woman suffrage is unimportant compared to the great fundamental questions that go to the root of right conduct as regards both men and women. There should be equality of rights but not identity of function; and with the man, as with the woman, the prime duties are those related to the home and the family."The supreme importance and high position of the woman of the type of Julia Ward Howe cannot be increased materially by the possession of the ballot. I am glad that the good, wise and brave mother should have the ballot. I am especially glad if its possession will add to the high dignity of her position in the eyes of men. But I cannot conceive of any man now failing to hold such a mother as more worthy of respect than any man, or than any other woman."In the long run and taken as a whole, men and women will go up or go down together, and all reforms of first-class importance must look toward raising both men and women to a higher level, alike as regards the things of the body and as regards the things of the soul."Our "Want Ads" bring results*BATTLESHIP "NEVADA" WILL BE NAVY'S PRIDEThe battleship "Nevada" will be the pride of the American navy when completed, or one of a pair of prides, for the "Oklahoma" will be a sister ship. The vessels will be 583 feet long, 95 feet 2 1/2 inches wide, and will have a displacement of 27,500 tons. They will have a contract speed of 20.5 knots, and will mount ten 14-inch and twenty-one 5-inch guns.The manner of mounting the big guns marks a distinct advance in American naval architecture, as the two turrets nearest the ends of each ship contain three guns and the turrets amidship will contain two.
These will be the first vessels of the navy on which the guns are thus mounted. Many advantages are claimed for this manner of mounting, chief among which is the efficiency in aiming and the great destruction that must follow when three enormous shells hit the mark at once.

evening, in addition to the regular the usual price of admission—10

The program in full is as follows:

SYSTEM THAT WILL ATTRACT
MANY PEOPLE*SOUTHERN PACIFIC IS TO ADOPT NEW METHOD OF BRINGING SETTLERS TO NEVADA.One of the methods to be adopted by the Southern Pacific company to attract people to come to Nevada will soon be in evidence here, when District Freight and Passenger Agent Fulton will be in receipt of thousands of handsome double postcards, which will be in five different designs, showing Nevada scenes, coupled with a bit of local verse and an invitation to visit this state.These cards will be distributed among people who desire them.
There will be sufficient margin left for a message. The cards will be ready for distribution in about 10 days.This action was taken at a meeting of railroad officials held yesterday at San Francisco, which was attended by Mr. Fulton. At his suggestion several other innovations were put through. One, which will go into effect immediately, was due to complaints made by commercial men and other travelers that trains Nos. 2 and 5 carried no day coaches on the first sections. This will be remedied by making first sections consist of mail and express cars and day coaches.Mr. Fulton also requested that there be a greater interval between trains 6 and 10, so that Nevada people may remain in San Francisco for the theaters and arrive in Reno shortly after noon. This matter will be taken up with eastern connections at once so that it will appear upon the next time card.LAUX'S CONDITION TAKES AN UNFAVORABLE TURNDr. Mangan says that the case of Peter Laux, the victim of the Kennedy shooting affray, has taken an unfavorable turn, the first bad symptoms since he was brought to the hospital a week ago.Until yesterday Laux's condition has been favorable, but as the bullet passed through the head and brain, matter exuded from the terrible wound, there has never been but slight hope of his recovery.—

SUSPENDED PUBLICATIONThe Lovelock Tribune, which for four years has been edited by John Case, who was well-known in Reno, while he was a student at the University of Nevada, has suspended publication. Its plant, good will, etc., has been bought by the Review-Miner, which will probably hereafter be known as the Review-Miner-Tribune. In the announcement of the Tribune's demise Mr. Case intimates that he will stay in the newspaper game in Lovelock. The Tribune's end comes as a surprise to many, for under Mr. Case's management it bore all the earmarks of a prosperous country newspaper. Mr. Case is a forceful, capable newspaperman who ought to be able to fill a responsible position in a larger field."Two Reels of the Use of Dynamite," "The Meeting of the Ways," Vitagraph drama; "The Sheepman's Escape," Essanay western; "Bill's Bills," comedy, and an up-to-date Edison fairy story, entitled "Jack and the Bean Stalk." This is one of the best programs of the season. Tomorrow will be shown the "Mystery of the Maine," a two-reel subject.WILL NOT DROP ACTIONS AGAINST CATTLE COMPANY"There is absolutely no intention on the part of the government to drop any of the actions pending against Congressman William Kent, of California, or the Golconda Cattle company, of which Kent is the president," says Samuel Platt, United States district attorney for Nevada. "On the other hand, it is the determination of the government to press the charges against Kent and his company with all possible speed. As a result of my recent visit to Washington, it was decided to place the civil case against Kent's company ahead and his associates. The issue involved in the civil and criminal case is identically the same, says a recent published interview with Attorney Platt.What the U. S. Must Prove.
"What the government will have to prove is that Kent and the Gol-conda Cattle company have unlawfully inclosed by a fence a portion of the federal domain. If we can prove this in the civil cases we will be entitled to compensatory damages. We cannot bring a criminal action against the cattle company because a corporation cannot be imprisoned.In the criminal cases we propose to endeavor to punish the officials of the company by fine or imprisonment, or both. To do this we will have to prove, as in the civil cases, unlawful inclosure of the public domain.The cases against Kent and the company, of which he is the president, have been set to follow other cases pending in the federal court.
As a matter of form they were set for Tuesday, but as the other federal cases had not been disposed of nothing could be done in the Kent cases. Next Monday I will ask Judge Farrington for an order setting the cases to follow each other on a certain date.Squaw Valley Case First.
"What is known as the Squaw Valley case will be tried first.
This involves the alleged unlawful inclosure of 27,000 acres of land in Squaw valley by Kent's company.
The second suit is what is known as the Rock creek case, involving the alleged unlawful inclosure of 2600 acres of land. Following these cases the criminal suits will be pressed.As to whether there will be other indictments returned, I am not at liberty to say. It would be my judgment that the civil cases will occupy several weeks."While District Attorney Platt would make no statement relative to additional indictments, it is considered as well as settled that other indictments will be returned, no matter whether the government wins or loses in the actions now pending.
In case the civil suits now pending should fail, it is clear that a conviction would be difficult to obtain on the present indictments, as the same issues are involved. Hence, to get redress, new indictments would be necessary.A house to rent? Try a Bonanza
